This week is a hot one! Read on for some “cool” news...

Mary

PTRS Faculty member Dr. Michelle Prettyman attended the APTA Conference in Salt Lake City which was held on June 26-29, 2013. She also attended the APTA Self-Study workshop which is designed to assist program faculty, administrators/directors, and administrative staff to develop a Self-study Report and host an on-site accreditation visit. The planning has started for our 2016 self-study and accreditation visit.

Dr. Jill Whitall attended the 10th International Conference on Developmental Coordination Disorder, June 28-July 1, 2013 in Ouro Preto, Brazil.

Dr. Whitall coordinated the Lightning Session: “Neurocognitive correlates of DCD” and presented a talk entitled: “Children with DCD can perceive and adapt to perceptible and subliminal rhythm changes”.

Mary Rodgers, PT, PhD, FAPTA, FASB
George R. Hepburn Professor & Chair
Dept. Physical Therapy & Rehabilitation Science
University of Maryland School of Medicine
100 Penn Street, Rm. 131A
Baltimore, MD 21201-1082
410-706-5658 fax: 410-706-4903
mrodgers@som.umaryland.edu
http://pt.umaryland.edu
Effective July 2013, Kernan Orthopaedics and Rehabilitation Hospital will now be known as the University of Maryland Rehabilitation & Orthopaedic Institute.

Open the link to read more about the transition:

The revised Dress Code policy is posted to the PTRS website under Current Students Entry Level DPT. Press control and click to open this link:

APTA has drafted a new vision statement of the physical therapy profession:

Transforming society by optimizing movement to improve health and participation in life.