Scholarly Activities

Wan-wen Liao, PhD candidate; Sandy McCombe Waller, PT, PhD, MS, NCS, Assistant Professor; and Jill Whittall, PhD, Professor, recently had an article published in Cogent Medicine entitled, "Kinect-based individualized upper extremity rehabilitation is effective and feasible for individuals with stroke using a transition from clinic to home protocol." (DOI: <http://dx.doi.org/10.1080/2331205X.2018.1428038>)

Roy Film, PT, DPT, OCS, FAAOMPT, Assistant Professor and Vicki Gray, MPT, PhD, Research Associate have each been selected as an "Elite Reviewer" for the Archives of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation for 2017. This selection as one of the top reviewers by the editors reflects the number, timeliness, and quality of reviews completed for the Archives in 2017

as well as critical thinking and effective participation in the process of peer review. The designation as an Elite Reviewer recognizes "individuals whose contributions to the Archives have been of extraordinary magnitude and quality".

Congratulations!

Research Seminar

The Rehabilitation Science Research Seminar series kicks off this semester on Friday, January 26th from 9:00am - 10:00am in Room 211 of the Allied Health Building at 100 Penn Street. Join us for this week's presentation:

"Acoustic neuromodulation during a brief nap to enhance upper extremity sensorimotor performance"

by
Brian Johnson
OTR/L, PhD Candidate

Class of 2020 Fund Raiser

CAUSE AN EFFECT

Make dinner a selfless act by joining us for a fundraiser to support UMB DPT. Come in to the Chipotle at 919 E Fort Ave in Baltimore on Tuesday, January 30th between 4:00pm and 8:00pm. Bring in this flyer, show it on your smartphone or tell the cashier you're supporting the cause to make sure that 50% of the proceeds will be donated to UMB DPT.

Online orders will not be included in the fundraiser total. To ensure your purchase is counted in the fundraiser, be sure to order and pay in-restaurant. Gift card purchases during fundraisers do not count towards total donated sales, but purchases made with an existing gift card will count.

Meet the Maker Seminar Series
