Student Updates

Katherine Van Den Heuvel (SPT '14) recently received an award from APTA for her work as Core Ambassador for Maryland.

Congratulations Katie!

Publication News

Associate Professor, Chris L. Wells, PhD, PT, CCS, ATC, recently had a paper accepted to Physical Therapy Journal "Older Trauma Patients Exposure to Therapy and Factors that Influence Therapy Opportunities."

Announcements

Did you know that Sept. 8th is World PT day?! The day is an "opportunity for physical therapists from all over the world to raise awareness about the crucial contribution the profession makes to keeping people well, mobile and independent." Learn more here.

APTA Honors & Awards 2014 (Call for Nominees)

The following information was recently released regarding nominating honorees for several APTA awards. Please review the list of awards, prior recipients, and criteria for each award here.

Feel free to nominate yourself or a colleague (with her/his approval). Per the APTA website:

"Nominations must be submitted electronically. All materials completed and submitted for each nomination must be received by the APTA Honors and Awards Program on or before December 1, 2013, to be considered for 2014 Honors and Awards Program. Please note that the nominator is responsible for reviewing and ensuring the proper completion of all steps within the online nomination submission process before final submission."

The award recognition ceremony will take place at the Annual Conference in June 2014.

Dr. Leslie Glickman is willing to assist with preparing the supporting documents (if needed) but would like to meet with you to discuss further before Sept 30th.

PTRS Fact Sheet

We recently created a PTRS Fact Sheet to provide a glimpse of the Department and our alumni for prospective students and donors. It features many of our current students. Be sure to check it out here.

Reminders

The American Society of Nuerorehabilitation (ASNR) is still accepting abstract submissions for its upcoming annual meeting in San Diego, CA (November 7-8, 2013). The abstract submission deadline has been extended to Sept. 15, 2013.
