

Class of 2022 Admission Checklist

Accepting your offer

- To ACCEPT the offer of admission, please submit the Enrollment Form both emailed and mail to you. Accepting the offer of admission requires that you submit a $800 non-refundable deposit. Your deadline for accepting the offer of admission and submitting the deposit is noted on the Enrollment Form.
- IMPORTANT NOTE: After accepting the offer of admission and submitting the $800 non-refundable deposit, this department will regularly monitor the PTCAS Competing Offers Accepted List. If your name appears on this list, it confirms that you have accepted the offer of admission at another DPT program. In this case, your offer of admission to PTRS will be revoked and your space in the entering class will be cancelled.
- If you choose to DECLINE the offer of admission, after paying your deposit, please send an email with a brief explanation to Nicole Willhide: nwillhide@som.umaryland.edu Your feedback, regarding the application process and interview day, is welcome.

- The Department of Physical Therapy and Rehabilitation Science at the University of Maryland School of Medicine administers a rigorous program in preparation for a physical therapy career. The demands placed on the student during their time in the curriculum correspond to the expectations of entry-level physical therapists. These demands encompass the following areas: observational, communicative, psychomotor, cognitive and affective behavioral skills.
- As per UMSOM policy, “any student who is not yet a matriculant must make requests for accommodation of disabilities within one week after accepting admission to the Department. Any matriculating student who becomes aware of a disability requiring accommodation, or of need for accommodation of a previously known disability, must request the accommodation as soon as the need for accommodation has been identified.”

 - Monday, February 4, 2019 @10 am
 - Wednesday, March 13, 2019 @2 pm

- Participation is strongly encouraged. All students who are admitted and accept the offer to the DPT program are invited to participate and will have the opportunity to ask questions and hear important information to better assist you in making a smooth transition into the DPT program.
- ● New Student Orientation Tuesday, May 28, Wednesday, May 29, 2019 8:00 am – 5:00 pm
- Attendance is mandatory. Orientation is a 2-day event.
 - On Tuesday, the class will participate in a ropes-and-initiative course at an Outdoor Education Center on the campus of the University of Maryland System Campus. This activity is designed to allow the new students to quickly breakdown barriers, to get to know their fellow classmates, build self-esteem and develop group cohesion.
 - On Wednesday, enrolling students will finalize all the details needed to begin their studies in the DPT program. Along with the technology aspect, you will have the ability to your parking permit, visit financial aid or the student accounting office and prepare for the challenges of PT school!
- CPR and First Aid: Provide upon enrollment.
 - ● CPR certification must include infant, child and adult resuscitation.
 - ● Courses delivered solely via a web-based format ARE NOT acceptable.
 - ● “Blended” format courses are acceptable: on-line instruction and in-person skills practice and testing.

Certifications must be valid on the first day of class and must remain active throughout your enrollment in the DPT program.

- The following are considered acceptable CPR certification programs:
